

*Praise the LORD! Give thanks to the LORD, for He is good;
His Love endures forever.
Psalm 106:1*

My Precious Friend,

This season of Thanksgiving fills my heart with overflowing gratitude for Jesus, Abba, Father, and our wonderful helper and counselor, the Holy Spirit. Words can't express my love. Who can proclaim the mighty acts of the LORD, or fully declare His praise? (vs. 2)

Your friendship, prayers and partnership have given me wings to proclaim His glory. Blessed are they who maintain justice, who constantly do what is right. (vs. 3)

By honoring the Lord and investing in His Kingdom, you are joining Jesus' mission! Thank you for all you have sacrificially given to His work through my ministry!!! My prayer for you is: Remember (your name), O LORD, when You show favor to Your people. Come to their aid when You save them, that they may enjoy the prosperity of Your chosen ones, that they may share in the joy of Your nation and join Your inheritance in giving praise. (vs. 4)

Teaching at Church of the Highlands women's conf. on "RUTH" was a joy!!!

Speaking at Chick-Fil-A corporate headquarters was a privilege.

Leading Spiritual Emphasis week with JR. HIGH was fun, and 17 students received Jesus as their personal Savior!!! They are CHOSEN WITH A MISSION....

Spiritual Motherhood (Isaiah 54:1-5) has been a promise from the Lord to me...and I've been amazed at God's faithfulness to entrust me with such godly young men and women over the years.

George Gachara is my precious "spiritual son," whom I met at 16 yrs. old in 2002 at our first SV Get-away in Kenya. As an orphan, he was searching for his identity, and after I shared my story and the Gospel one evening, he received Jesus as his personal Savior. After he shared his story with me, the Lord joined our hearts together, and I became his "spiritual mom!" After believing God for his college education (miracles abounding), he is now soon to graduate at age 24. Praise the Lord for the gift of leadership that God has been developing in my son, as he has been recognized as a young leader in his nation. He recently flew to Washington, DC to receive an international peace award. What a privilege to meet George there, and then spend the next 2 weeks traveling together, sharing, speaking and meeting with wonderful godly leaders, friends and family! What a joy to share our story of God's love and goodness!!! George is a delight to all who know him, and he was blessed by many of my precious friends and partners in Washington, Indy and St. Louis. Here are a few glimpses:

Washington DC ...”Africa Prays for America” event on Oct. 16, www.aslpn.org was strategic!!! Here we are with Akeem, a former Muslim from Nigeria!

ACLJ (American Center for Law and Justice) hosted us for a special meeting with TJ, the international director. They are setting up a center in Nairobi, and were excited to connect with George!

We spoke at a middle school with Student Venture in Indy, where students were deeply touched, and many indicated they received Jesus into their lives.

KSIV radio interviews with my dear friend, Harold Hendrick, www.haroldhendrick.com. You can hear the interviews anytime. What a blessing Harold is!!!

My family and friends love George! Here he is with my godson Caleb, who’s planning to go on the mission to Kenya with me!

Pray for George, as he applies for a scholarship to Washington Univ. in St. Louis for graduate school. We had wonderful meetings and they are very promising! I will keep you posted! God is amazing!

Pastor Paul and Christ Covenant Church (a Kenyan church community) in St. Louis warmly welcomed us!

Saying “good-bye” to my precious son, George, was hard, but I plan to see him at Christmas in Nairobi, Kenya, where I have been invited to speak at the Christmas Conference for the High School and College ministry! This year’s theme is “THIS GENERATION —ACTS 13:36.” I am honored to have the privilege of speaking into their lives each morning, because of what they each mean to the Lord and their generation!

George represents the power of the transforming Gospel! An article has been written about him one day being the President of Kenya... Only God knows all He has planned for George, and for each of these young disciples of Jesus! The world is waiting for a generation exploding with His heart!!!

Please let me know how to pray for you this season of THANKSGIVING!!! I am setting aside time to pray for you, and all my dear friends, partners, and disciples around the world.

Would you pray about giving a special gift this Thanksgiving season to be a part of my missions to Kenya and the Congo, Dec. 22-Jan. 17? I need to trust God for the travel expenses, and would love to have extra to share with others!

My prayer card will give specifics to PRAY and BELIEVE GOD FOR!!! You are dearly loved and treasured!

I am eternally grateful for Jesus and you! Lovingly,

Nancy
